

Quests

Release the burner inside of you

You have successfully made your way to the playa.... But wait..... what is that default world outfit you are wearing there, unacceptable! Get out your best playa outfit and dress the role before you get spotted in this embarrassing outfit!

Have every team member dress up in a playa outfit (for non-Burners: just wear something wacky) and make one composite picture including all your team members (some photoshop skills might be needed) and upload your picture.

We may post your photo to our site or Facebook group or other places. Please include a sign or text that says "Private please!" or email us if you do not wish to share your photo with others this way. Thank you!
